

Estate of David J. Orne

STATE OF VERMONT
District of Orleans, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court, for the District of Orleans, ss.
To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of David J. Orne late of Westmore in said district, deceased.
GREETING:
WHEREAS, application in writing hath been made to this Court in writing, by the Administrator of said estate, praying for license and authority to convey to E. E. Rash a certain piece of land with the buildings thereon, situated in said town of Westmore, being the easterly half of lot 65 of the first division of lots in said Westmore, in accordance with a certain contract entered into by and between the said David J. Orne and said E. E. Rash, on the 18th day of August, 1908, wherein and whereby upon the performance of certain conditions and the making of certain payments by the said Rash, the said David J. Orne agreed to transfer and convey to the said Rash the title to said property; and representing that from the date of said contract the said Rash has performed the covenants and agreements thereof and made the payments as therein specified, and is entitled, under the terms of said contract, to a deed of said real estate;
WHEREUPON, the said Court appointed and assigned the 21st day of October 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the Probate Office in Newbury in said district, to hear and decide upon said application and petition and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order, together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate, all which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for the hearing.
THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear at said Court, at the time and place assigned, and there to show cause why you object to the granting of such license, if you see cause.
Given under my hand at Newbury in said district this 29th day of September, 1916.
RUFUS W. SPEAR, Judge.

Mother-Love Aids Son in Trenches

It Brings Relief to Boy Standing His Watch Deep in Mud.

Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible world war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France." The cold rain soaked him to the skin; the mud was deep. He had had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains, he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, once more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared this wonderful muscle-soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist's, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 a bottle.

CHARLES TEMPLE

Charles Temple was born in Fletcher May 14, 1819 and lived in that vicinity until 23 years ago when he came to Irasburg and purchased a farm in Brighton. In 1836 he married Miss Myrabelle Powers, who died about eight years ago. After his wife's death he sold the farm and came to the village to reside with his daughter, Mrs. Addison Smith. Mr. Temple was a pleasant man in his home and a kind father to the two children he adopted in their infancy, Mrs. Addison Smith and Jonas Temple. Mr. Temple suffered a shock about the first of July from which he never rallied, and was helpless until his death, and during his long illness he was most patiently and tenderly cared for by his daughter and her husband. Besides his son and daughter he is survived by two brothers, George Temple of Richmond and Joel Temple of Brownington, and one sister, Mrs. D. B. Cobb of South Albany. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church, Rev. W. A. Warner officiating, assisted by Rev. C. W. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith extend sincere thanks to all who so kindly helped them in any way during the illness and death of their loved one.

SEEK PROGRESSIVE AND LABOR VOTES ON FALSE CLAIMS

Democrats Posing as the Enactors of Legislation Which the Indisputable Facts Show to Be of Republican Origin.

AUTHORITY ON SOUND SOCIAL LAW CITES 11 GLARING CASES

Organized Labor Resents This Deception and Running True to Form Will in November as at Many Previous Elections Indignantly Smite Those Who Without Justice Lay Claim to Its Gratitude—Even the Much Touted Federal Reserve Law is Based Entirely on the Statistical Research of a Republican Administration.

That "No class is more instant than labor to condemn and punish those who without foundation lay claim to its gratitude" is the assertion of John Williams, ex-commissioner of labor, apropos of certain false claims set forth by Vance McCormick, Democratic national chairman, in behalf of his party.

Chairman McCormick caused to be published in the New York Times, on July 31, an appeal for Progressive and Labor support, based on "twenty measures enacted by congress while President Wilson has been in the White House," and for which he claims credit for the Wilson administration and asks Progressive approbation. Commenting on this statement, the former commissioner of labor says: "Students and promoters of sound social legislation will do well to examine this list, for it contains a number of items of unusual interest."

"We may well believe that it was with a great deal of pride that Mr. McCormick contemplated the record of his party and that he drew a vivid mental picture of Progressives looking to the support of Mr. Wilson because of the things claimed on behalf of this administration."

"It is a pity that in the interest of truth, which knows neither Democrat, Progressive nor Republican, we must mar this remarkable statement. Nevertheless it is our duty to call attention to the fact that in his effort to induce support for Mr. Wilson the chairman of the Democratic national committee has fallen into a glaring error. We have no desire to disparage the achievements of the Wilson administration, but we must enter emphatic protest against any attempt to pad the record."

"Mr. McCormick claims 'twenty measures enacted by congress while President Wilson has been in the White House.' This claim we dispute. More than one-half are measures enacted under a Republican administration and were approved by ex-President Taft, and for others the Democratic administration deserves no credit."

"Let any one think that this is a groundless assertion, we herewith furnish the record, which can easily be verified:

"From among the twenty pieces of legislation cited by Chairman McCormick I select the following:

"(1) Eight hour law on government work. In effect March 1, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

"(2) Eight hour provision for post-office clerks. In effect generally Aug. 24, 1912.

"(3) Eight hour provision applicable to the manufacture of ordnance for the government. In effect Jan. 1, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

"(4) Children's bureau. In effect April 9, 1912. Signed by Mr. Taft.

"(5) Industrial commission law to investigate industrial relations. In effect Aug. 23, 1912. Signed by Mr. Taft.

"(6) The phosphorous match law. Enacted in 1912, effective as to the importation of white phosphorous matches July 1, 1913, and as to the manufacture of such matches July 1, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

"(7) The department of labor law creating a department with a secretary who shall be a member of the president's cabinet. In effect March 4, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

"(8) The parcel post law. In effect Jan. 1, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

"(9) The federal reserve law, which, while passed during this administration, is based entirely on the vast work of investigation and compilation done by the monetary commission during the Taft administration and closely follows, except in certain details, the legislation recommended by that commission."

"(10) The eight hour law for the District of Columbia was fathered and put through by a Republican, Senator La Follette."

"The anti-trust law antedates the Cleveland administration, although President Cleveland never enforced it. From time to time, as with all great legislative acts, it has been necessary to amend or add to it, and the anti-trust law of the Wilson administration was merely such an amendment, a logical development of the original act."

"(11) The Commerce Court was actually abolished during the Taft Administration, although it has not been demonstrated that its abolition was a wise step."

"Any statement hereafter emanating

THE GREENSBOROS

GREENSBORO

Miss Wilder has been spending some time at Winnemere.

Repairs are being made on the Congregational parsonage.

Mrs. Rose Tolman went to Newport Friday to visit friends.

chowder supper will be served to all who come. An admission will be charged.

The illustrated lecture in the Congregational church Sept. 26th by Rev. Willis T. Sparhawk, Mr. Randolph on "The Heart of the Sierras," was very instructive and enjoyable. Mr. Sparhawk spent several months in the Yosemite valley in California and his pictures of this region are marvelous for beauty of color and accuracy. This lecture should appeal to schools as well as churches, being very valuable in educative features.

At the adjourned meeting of the Village Improvement club Monday evening at Grange hall, officers were elected as follows: President, J. H. Barrington; vice president, Mrs. Mabel Morse; secretary, Mrs. Gertrude Campbell; treasurer, P. N. Allen; board of directors, Payson Morse, A. B. Cuthbertson and Mrs. A. E. Perrin; ways and means committee, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Kaiser and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Wilson. It was voted as the work to be taken up that the schoolhouse grounds be graded as much as possible this fall and the board of directors was instructed to enter upon this work at once. The club has 28 charter members and starts off with every appearance of being a great success and making many much-needed improvements in and about our beautiful village. An invitation is extended to every citizen in the town to join with us in this work.
